FEET OFFICE

We want to help you bring people back into your commercial space using a set of guidelines that have been used to bring people back into over 800 million square feet world wide.

Cushman & Wakefield | Stevenson is your local partner for helping you welcome people back into your commercial space.

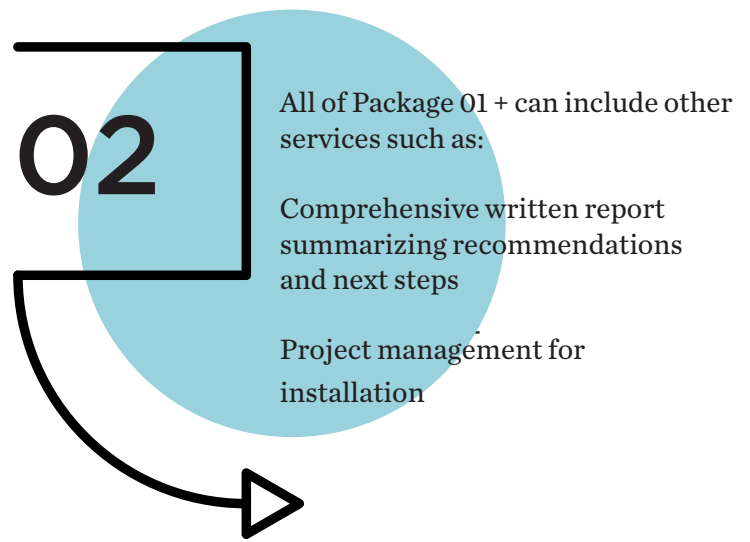

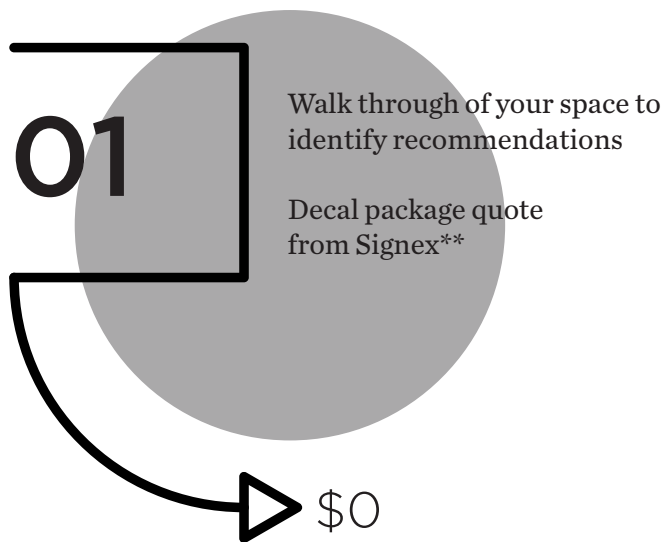

Developed by the experts in our global network, the 6 Feet Office is a set of guidelines to help businesses set up their spaces safely and efficiently in a post-pandemic world.

HOW TO GET STARTED

Book a complimentary consultation* with one of our 6 Feet Office experts. We'll walk through your space and identify spaces and practices that you will need to adjust in order to ensure your clients and employees are safe and comfortable. Our partner, Signex, can provide you with any decal or signage needs you decide to implement.

Need more support? Package 02 can be customized to suit your needs for a fee after your initial consultation.

*Consultations available in limited quantities based on availability

**Decals sold separately by Signex; costs not included in packages
