Cushman & Wakefield | Stevenson Welcomes New President, Plans for Growth on the Horizon

Winnipeg, MB - Cushman & Wakefield | Stevenson is thrilled to announce the appointment of its new President, Jennifer Mullen-Berube. Mullen-Berube has delivered transformation and innovative changes for over 25 years and has held senior leadership roles including: Senior VP, Chief Digital and Technology Officer, Chief Brand & Innovation Officer, Vice President, Business Integration & Operations, Chief Operating Officer (COO) and VP, Corporate Development.

“I’m excited to be joining this incredible team and organization,” said Mullen-Berube. “I look forward to working with our team and partners to advance the commercial real estate industry by expanding and developing the client experience, so that together we can create a positive impact in our communities.”

In her role with CW Stevenson, Jennifer will be responsible for organizational growth and development, strategic oversight, mergers & acquisitions, leadership oversight and more. Jennifer believes in building success through collective and diverse capabilities of teams, nurturing a culture of trust, ownership and accountability to consistently deliver shared outcomes that meet or exceed planned results.

“We will finalize our strategy and align the entire organization to deliver on those commitments,” said Mullen-Berube. “The primary focus is growing our Asset Management, Property Management, Commercial Real Estate Brokerage and Valuation and Appraisal divisions. Internally, we will focus on digital solutions and people strategies to deliver greater client experiences while maintaining the incredible culture the organization is known for.”

Martin McGarry, CEO of CW Stevenson and President and CEO of MMI Asset Management has long had a vision for growth, including the integration of his Asset Management firm with CW Stevenson’s existing lines of business. “This vision requires strategic focus and vertical integration of two established businesses into one powerhouse. No one is better suited to help us do that than Jennifer. Her business acumen speaks for itself, and I know she will be transformational for our firm and the future of commercial real estate in Manitoba.”
